STOWAWAYS
Hollins is trying to decide what to do with a growing colony of stowaway locusts.

The youngsters - often disguised as Beavers - are turning up in their mother country from time to time. In some 40-ounce Dutch were declared undesirable when they refused to sue for independence in 1949.

Most of the stowaways are Beavers - the children of Dutch colonists and Indonesian women. Officials say many of the mothers acquired them in new ways - because they would find a better life in Holland.

KEEP HOMES SIMPLE
A person shouldn't walk into a house and feel he'd do something wrong if he makes the slightest move. That's the comment of Charles Murray, a free-lance decorator who advises women to keep their homes simple, uncluttered and comfortable. Murray also warns on people who have things for most of the life they say, "use everything you own... or don't own it."

FOOT HEALTH

The chairman of the National Foot Health Council says women's feet live in a bad way... and the pointed toe doesn't help any. Doctor Joseph Layman says he hasn't seen a perfect foot since about 1890, when he learned in Texas. "These things had big feet," he recalls, "but weren't afraid to wear shoes to fit them."

Ornith Charm

The influence of the Ornith Charm in some fashion for designers. The birds blend well with wool and summery drip-dye colors. One Manhattan number features a flower print cut into a silk-like robe and matched tapered pants. Frog fastenings complete the outfit.

NYLOS SHOES

While it makes a big showing this year, it is in fact the pre-nylon, novelty outfit plus in-look - nylon and nylon shoes. While it also is making accessory news.

Here's today's good grooming up. Change your hair style for summer. Let that hair do what it wants to do, and it will be handsome and retainable.

Safety FIRST!

Here's a pretty smart little fellow. He evidently believes that accidents can be prevented... and he's so right.

However, there is no short cut to safety! That's why we make safety a word of distinction.

Our program ranges from safety glasses to a well-equipped dispensary... from safety shoes to guards on equipment.

"Off-the-job" safety is mighty important too. It's a fact that the average person is safer on the job than at home. That's why a safety is so very good reason why "off-the-job" safety should be important to us all. Let's make safety a part of our everyday living - at work, home, school or play.

Lindsay woman reports on Fern Cottage YPC conference

Mrs. Lloyd McMillan, President of the Victoria County Young Progressive Association, recently attended a Leadership Conference for Ontario YPCs at Fern Cottage, Ontario. Mrs. McMillan, who is a member of the delegation that arrived Friday night, but the conference was actually under way after breakfast on Saturday when everyone packed in the recreation hall to take a large reception by Premier Leslie Frost, who sent his warmest regards and his regrets as to his inability to be present due to previous commitments. The group in charge served a delicious lunch and a social hour followed. The girls brought the evening to a close with the singing of "Taps".

The conference was held at Fern Cottage, Ontario, which was the site of the 1967 YPC Conference. The ladies and Miss MacKinnon, for most enjoyable and profitable evening to which Mrs. Gordon actively replied.

MAPLE LEAFS BLANK MIAMI MARLINS 5-0

(Using Press International)

The Toronto Maple Leafs were favored to win the International League playoffs on the strength of their heavy hitting, but now they are also exhibiting one of the more potent pitching stunts in the circuit.

Don Jensen, the sixth straight Left to pitch a complete game when he blanked the Miami Marlins, 5-0, Tuesday night. In those six games, of which two were first, Left pitchers have limited the opposition to seven runs.

In the top and last fourth, Jensen led the staff at half-time, first-place ace on Toronto's lineup, Jim Dwyer, 6-4. The Leafs scored three times in each of the second and eighth innings to take the victory for starter Tom Lawlor.

In other action, Columbus swept Rochester, 7-3, behind the first pitching of Whisman Dwyer, 7-5, in the second game after the Blues had won the seven-game series, -8, on Lake Erie's home run.

Toronto's Toronto Argonauts club has signed Ron Parsons to try out for the quarterback job against Canadian Juggo Doughty and Kenny Pitt of the Toronto Argonauts. Parsons is from London, Canada, Oregon and was the number two passer in the west last season.

The Pittsburgher of little fame may be interpreted with the club-cake of horse owners at Ontario's race tracks.

Lindsay Man Arriving In Camp

Several car owners in Lindsay are reported to be getting their cars personal free of charge... but they are not appreciating the gesture... to be free of the "vic-tims" called on Mayor Lloyd Burrows after Priority afternoon to request a personal complaint about the "free pickup job."

The woman, Mrs. Therese Armstrong who reportedly lives on the corner of Jane and Henry Streets said she and seven other car owners had their vehicles repaired by the city workers who are at the present time having the water tower, placed just north the way from where the cars were parked in a park job.

Didn't spark bullfight resolution, Lindsay minister states in letter; Claims press reports were erroneous

A Lindsay minister has submitted that a newspaper should check any information which comes to him before publishing it. Her, W. J. March, outlined himself with the bullfight resolution passed by the Bay of Quinte Conference, United Church, which resulted in his being reported as having been in the conference's vision.

Outlining his position and his views on the matter, Mr. March wrote:

"The task of a newspaper is, I believe, to give the public news, . . . that is, what happened or was said. However, gossip is often the only basis of many articles found in papers. So the use of the word 'rumor' in the case of what happened in the Bay of Quinte report of the planned Lindsay bullfight is as it appeared in the Lindsay paper. Not one reporter from Lindsay was at the meeting at the time of the discussion, and yet both parties were willing to give another paper without comment the party being branded. This is the kind of press job rather than exploitation of second-hand reporting and street gossip. Since both parties have been made much kind to me in the past, and as I have spoken to both papers about this error in reporting, I give in this what actually happened."

"At the last meeting of the Lindsay Presbytery in Lindsay, the Divangelan and United Presbytery committee mentioned the planned bullfight and had insisted that a resolution be drafted condemning the display for various reasons. Both Lindsay ministers spoke and asked that no resolution or motion be made at that time, as the Lindsay Ministerial Association felt that the display would never materialize. The report accepted the proposal, but agreed that this matter be pursued and finalized the Presbytery through the Evangelism committee which was present."

When the Lindsay paper mentioned on June fourth, that the bulls would be fought, and plans were to be finished, the paper with the announcement was passed into the hands of the Evangelism Committee of which I am a member. The past president of Conference was contacted about the Lindsay C of E caused an exception this year. I still believe it is just a "bit of fun."

Grant family water service if cesspools are provided, meeting called on-the-spot

Matters came to a head Thursday in the long struggle of the Lindsay parents to have cesspools installed in their home to acquire the necessary sanction for the family to obtain water service for their recently acquired house.

A notice posted on the door of the Wolfe street home, stating that the premises were deemed dangerous to the public health because of the lack of water supply and toilet facilities and therefore closed to human habitation and signed by the Medical officer of health, resulted in an on-the-spot meeting. Taking part were Medical Officer of Health, Dr. W. R. Crove, Sanitary Inspector J. Elwin, Water Board Superintendent Robin Reynolds and Mayor Lloyd Burrows. For a week since the meeting was the and her husband have been constantly consulting these departments in efforts to get the necessary permission to live in the building which they purchased from a local realtor.

With an evasive order from medical officers of health issued on Saturday, the plight of the family seemed uncertain.

Dr. Crove said he would recommend that two cesspools be dug on the garden on the north side of the house, which is the furthest spot from the sewage river. It was also recommended by the M.O.H. that a chemical toilet be used in the house.

As there are no sewers in that vicinity the problems to be considered are many, but Dr. Crove said he felt that if these two recommendations he had suggested were carried out to the satisfaction of the Sanitary Inspector he could have no objection to the removal of the notice from the door.

Mr. Reynolds was asked to be sure that water was turned on for the building.

"I cannot legally refuse to turn the water on if it is on request," stated the Water Board Superintendent.

A further source of trouble discussed was the fact that water from houses on higher ground in the same area runs into the cellar of the house.

The M.O.H. asked Mayor Burrows if sewer could not be installed in this particular area in the immediate future.

The mayor assured the party that the matter would be brought to the attention of the Board of Works.

Late Friday afternoon "The Post" carried the headline "The Post"

Holstein Club Takes Bus Trip

Members of the Victoria County Holstein Club, accompanied by their president, Stanley Beady, and the club's secretary, Ivan Bell, visited several farms during a 20-mile weekend bus trip.

The bus left Lindsay at 8:30 a.m. and the first stop was at Wexford, County Wick, where the club inspected the farms and modern equipment.

Proceeding to Orlin, Dr. A. G. Quinn's farm was toured after which the group had dinner in Orlin before continuing to Alliston.

The last stop was at the sightseeing at St. John's Farm owned by Mr. Charles J. Carson, at Belfast.

It was learned that work has already started on the design of the necessary plans for the cesspools, so in three days the family will be back in the house.

The family will be back in the house this Saturday night as they feared earlier in the week.

"THE POST", LINDSAY, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25TH, 1958

Ragnar Steen

The funeral service for the late Ragnar Steen took place from the McKillop and McIntosh Funeral Home in Ridgeway on Friday, May 16th, at 3:30 p.m. Rev. Chas. Brown conducted the service which was one of the largest held in Ridgeway for some time. A large number had been sent up outside to see that those unable to get in could hear the service.

The multitude of flowers banked the coffin and many of these came from Norway, Alaska, Winnipeg, Lindsay and all over southern Ontario.

The deceased was well known in Lindsay and many well remember him as a master of the piano and violin.

In later years he devoted his time to organ music and bands, having been organist and church director of Marsh Baptist Church in Ridgeway. He had composed music for several new hymns, the words being supplied by his friend and pastor, Chas. Brown. Among his compositions was a setting for the hymn "Praise My Name," which Chas. Brown sang on his programme shortly before his death.

A child's viewpoint

A Long Beach, California editor to a little awe-struck by a child's fresh approach to the world.

Through the years Helen Meyer has called many examples of a child's view point. . . .

There are some examples "Little girls are big road chopped up."

"Arms are to help your hands."

"Cars are for dogs to ease."

"A dog is to nuzzle."

Aid a package . . .

"A nurse is something to say. You look what I got."

These words, which I composed like this, may be in Helen Meyer's mind. . . .

God was not satisfied to give Him Word only in a learned book. He placed it in our hearts also. But we must listen and heed. The Bible easily helps us to understand God's Word.
